Villa Franca, December 29.

ON Saturday laſt the King of Sardinia, with his Court, ſet out from Nice on his Way to Turin, over the Mountains. The ſame Evening Mr. Villettes, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter to the King of Sardinia, embarked on board of the Duke Fireſhip for Savona, to proceed from thence for Turin. General Brown having deſired another Supply of Cannon to carry on the Siege of Antibes, Captain Weller, of his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Roebuck, hath landed twenty Guns, eighteen Pounders, with Ball and all neceſſary Appurtenances for that Service. A further Supply of eighteen Battering Braſs Cannon is arrived from Savona, under the Convoy of his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Diamond, and it is judged the Beſiegers will have their Batteries ready to play on the Caſtle and Fortifications before the 7th of next Month. A Quantity of Proviſions and Forage arrived laſt Week for the Army in Provence, and was ſent under Convoy to Cannes; and a farther Supply is coming from Leghorn. The Troops, which are advanced in the Country to the River d'Argens, are well ſupplied with Proviſions and Forage, of which laſt the Huſſars on the advanced Poſts about Draguinan, Roque, Brun, and Caſtellane, have found ſeveral Parcels, which the French Peaſants had conceal'd from their own Troops. The Feverſham arrived Yeſterday from Mahon, and in her Way fell in with three Spaniſh Veſſels, having Troops on board for Naples, one of which, with 93 Officers and Soldiers, ſhe took, and the other two being near the Land return'd to St. Tropez, from whence they ſail'd the ſame Morning. Theſe Troops embarked at Ceuta upwards of three Months paſt, and had put into St. Tropez, having been chaced before by ſome of his Britannick Majeſty's Ships employed on the Coaſt of Provence.

Copenhagen, Jan. 21, N. S. A Royal Placard is publiſhed here, dated the 12th Inſtant, N. S. giving Notice, that, whereas a Treaty of Peace was concluded on the 10th of Auguſt laſt with the Republick of Algiers in Africa, the Subjects of the Crown of Denmark may ſafely trade in the Mediterranean, making uſe of his Daniſh Majeſty's ordinary Sea-Paſſports for the firſt fifteen Months from the Date of the ſaid Treaty; at the End of which Term farther Notice will be given how they are to govern themſelves in that reſpect for the future.

Mantua, Jan. 21, N. S. We have certain Accounts from Milan, that our Army under Marquis Botta having attacked the revolted Genoeſe Peaſants in three different Poſts near the Bochetta, viz. General Franquini on one Side, General Andreaſi on another, and General St. André in the Centre; this laſt had the good Fortune to put to flight 12000 of them, all armed, 900 of whom were cut to Pieces by the Sclavonians and Carlſtadians, four Pieces of Cannon taken, and 200 Caſſines burnt: That the Bochetta was thus carried without much Loſs on our Side; and that our Soldiers having got Poſſeſſion of the Eminences, and opened themſelves a Paſſage to Genoa, ſome Detachments were already conſiderably advanced towards that City, and the main Body of the Army was to follow as ſoon as the neceſſary Preparations could be made, which would not require much Time.

Aix in Provence, Jan. 22, N. S. We are marching at laſt towards the Enemy, and our Army is to paſs the Argens To-morrow, over which three Bridges are laid. The Marquis de Matulevrier, Lieutenant General, has reaſſumed the Command of the Left, which Major General Chevret had, and has at the Head of his Column 30 Pieces of Cannon. The Marquis de Mirepoix, who commands the Corps de Reſerve, marched along the Sea Side to diſlodge the Enemy behind the Siagne, who have fortified the Village of Cragnolles, in order to cover Graſſe. It is not known whether they will wait for us.

Hambourg, Jan. 24, N. S. The Sieur Lochau was this Morning choſen into the Magiſtracy of this City, in the Room of Mr. Brokes, who died here ſome Days ſince, much and deſervedly lamented.

Vienna, January 25, N. S. Father Viſetti, a famous Jeſuit of Genoa, arrived a few Days ago ago at the College of Jeſuits in this Town, but upon the Court's having heard of his Arrival, he was ordered to go away in Twenty four Hours Time. Yeſterday Morning, a Courier arrived from the Marquis de Botta, with the important Advice of his having retaken the Bochetta, and all the neighbouring Heights. The Genoeſe fled towards the Town in ſo much Confuſion, that if the Auſtrians had had Artillery, they might in all Probability have obliged the Town itſelf to ſurrender. No particular Relation is yet arrived, but it is ſaid, that at one Poſt where the Irregulars found the moſt Reſiſtance, and loſt two of their beſt Officers, they made a terrible Maſſacre of all that they found in Arms. After having forced the above Poſts, ſome of our Troops advanced as far as Campo Morone, where they heard ſome firing of Cannon from Genoa, which was ſuppoſed to be intended to ſerve as a Signal to the Revolters to retire thither, the Villages and Houſes on both Sides being entirely abandoned.

Hague, Feb. 3, N. S. We have juſt received a Confirmation of the important News of the Auſtrians having forced the Paſſage of the Bochetta, which it is hoped, will in a ſhort Time enable them to put an End to the Inſurrection at Genoa. Letters received To-day from Paris mention, that M. Puiſieux is taken ill of the Small Pox. We likewiſe hear from thence, that the French have ſurprized Caſtellane, which was guarded by ſix Auſtrian Battalions, two of which eſcaped, the remaining four are ſaid to be made Priſoners, with the Loſs only of 12 Men on the Side of the French: Other Letters mention, four Piedmonteſe Battalions, inſtead of the ſix Auſtrian ones. And it is likewiſe written from thence, that Antibes continued making a gallant Defence, and that the French and Spaniſh Army had paſſed the Argens the 23d, in order to march up to Count Brown, and give him Battle, having ſent all their heavy Baggage behind the Durance. M. du Theil was appointed the French King's Plenipotentiary at Breda, in the Room of M. de Puiſieux.

Dublin, January 20.

This being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, the great Guns were fired at his Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green. At Noon the Lords Juſtices met at the Caſtle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction upon this Occaſion; and at Night there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies.

Whitehall, January 26, 1746-7.

Whereas on the 7th Inſtant, Penyſton Powney, Eſq; received an anonymous Letter, directed to him at Maidenhead, in Berks, requiring him, without fail, to bring, himſelf, Thirty Guineas, to the End of Oldfield, betwixt the Time of ſending the ſaid Letter, and Six of the Clock on the Tueſday Night following, and to lay the ſame, under a Turf, in a Hole that had been dug in the Ground; and threatning Miſchief to the ſaid Mr. Powney, in Caſe of Refuſal; His Majeſty for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in writing or ſending the ſaid Letter, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his, her or their Accomplice, or Accomplices therein, ſo as he, ſhe, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement, I do hereby promiſe a Reward of Thirty Pounds to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid upon Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Penyſton Powney.

Whitehall, January 16, 1746-7.

Whereas an Anonymous Letter was, on Chriſtmas Eve laſt, about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, brought to the Houſe of Mrs. Barnes, on Tooting Common in Surry, acquainting her, That her ſaid Houſe was beſet by ſix armed Men, who demanded all the Money and Watches that were therein, and in Caſe of there not being Twenty Pounds in Money, that the Amount thereof ſhould be made up in Plate, and delivered in a few Minutes where the Letter was received; in which Caſe no one ſhould be hurt: But that if any Delay, Noiſe, or Reſiſtance ſhould be made, ſhe would have but little Time to repent; His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in Writing or Sending the ſaid Letter, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo that he, ſhe or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, we the underwritten Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Surry, do hereby promiſe a Reward of Thirty Pounds to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid; to be paid upon the Conviction of any of the Offenders aforeſaid.
